“ When I think of "Nonc Sug," his love of zydeco music & dancing immediately come to mind as I'm sure it does for most who knew him. He was a true Energizer bunny once the music started! He possessed a kind and loving spirit. Over the years, my husband and I shared many enjoyable, fun-filled occasions and laughable moments with him. He will be missed!

“ My brother was a kind and loving person. He loved working in his flower/ fruit garden but most of all , he loved dancing and listening to zydeco music. I will miss dancing with such a great dancer. 🥰🙏😊

“ I remembered my sister Suzanne and I taking Uncle Sugar to the Crawfish Festival in Breaux Bridge and it was hot as heck and the Zydeco Music was totally awesome and Uncle Sugar would not mess around, needless to say my sister and I was taking turns dancing with Uncle Sugar and sweating profusely from the sun and when we said " Uncle Sugar lets take a break he went off to find a dancing partner and said" Ya'll going to let a 90 year old man out dance you". I will surely miss dancing with him. RIP Uncle Sugar.
