“ From: Deacon Harry Lee Bell, Sr. and Sis. Arrilla Williams Bell, Deaconess Annie Williams, and all her family. So much we could say, but words could never say enough. Once again 1 Thess. 4:13-17 guides us through. Yes, you have transitioned from this place, but never, never, from our hearts. At the appointed time, we will meet each other again. Rest.

“ To the Jefferson and related families I am truly sorry to learn of your loss. I remember Hazel both in Opelousas and at Grambling. My Dad pastored Jerusalem Baptist Chuurc and we often fellowshipped with Little Zion. At Grambling, whenever we met on campus, she always had a smile on her face. We pledged different sororities but frequently saw each other around campus. She was as sweet as anyone could ever be. She lived her life, finished her course, and now resides in Heaven with her Master and love ones. Accept God's will and be grateful for all of the memories.
