“ My deepest condolences to the Greene family. We have lost a giant among us. Mr. Hebrard was the first (to the best of my knowledge) minority Plumbing Contractor in the City of Opelousas, and was known to all as, "Mr. Hebrard." He passed his knowledge and trade on to many others (minorities and others) who were aspiring to become plumbing entrepreneurs by allowing them to "apprentice" under his license. He helped to open the doors for many who would later become self sufficient, including my deceased husband, Joseph R. Casimere. My family will always be indebted to him for this act of generosity. I had the occassion some years back to call upon Mr. Hebrard for plumbing services at my home in Sunset. In his usual efficient, kind and gentle manner, he completed his task, that is still holding up today. During this visit, we talked about the legacy he would leave to the City of Opelousas. Again, my condolences to the family, his wife and children, and his grandchildren, especially Dr. Chris Greene, whom I had the good fortunate to bond with at Xavier University when he studied Pharmacy. May God grant you peace.
