“ What an awesome lady! She was truly one of God's Angel. My memories of her are many, especially since she and my mother, Ezola Amos Broussard, were cousins and for a time, our families lived next door to each other in the Bellevue community . She was always so kind and giving to our family. We will never forget her generosity.

I will also remember her as being a "God fearing" woman, who daily practiced her catholic faith and showed it in both words and deeds. She attended Mass often and was contributed financially to her Church. Also, when in her best years, she took on the task of serving as a Leader during the annual "Christ the King Bazaar", the church main fundraising event. it was not a "Christ the King Bazaar", if Ms. Henrietta was not there! She made sure, along with others on her team, that all went according to plan. She would have it no other way. She wanted it to be successful and it was!

Rest in peace dear cousin because you have certainly earned your Crown. Sorry I can't be there with the family during this time, but know that you are all in my thoughts and prayers.

“ My mawmaw was truly an amazing woman. She was an amazing cook. Her love was expressed not by words but by actions. She would feed your soul. She loved us all and knew who all belonged to her even late in life when her memory wasn't so great. She served her community, her family and above all our God. I can still feel her starring at us when we would act up in church, I can still smell the pies and my favorite meatball stew in her kitchen. When I became a diabetic there weren't too many deserts that I could have but my mom and mawmaw invented so many sugar free options that I had to fight others not to eat my stuff...she even had me sugar free cold cups so when we would go by her house I can have my own. I love my mawmaw she taught me so much. God, education and being a good steward was what she instilled in all of her grandkids. RIP mawmaw, kiss pawpaw and daddy for me. Love you...until I see you again I will continue to make you proud!
