“ I don't know how it feels to lose a parent, but I understand what you are going through...Several years ago, I've lost someone very special to me and questioned God as to why this happened...But we are not to question him because his ways are not our ways and his thoughts are not our thoughts...When God knocks you off your feet, it's time to get on our knees....In times like these, we need Peace...Encouraging words may console you for awhile, but Peace will give you hope for a better tomorrow and gives you courage when the future seems hopeless...May God bless the Noel family and forever comfort you...Love you always...Ronnie
