“ *Linda and family,
I was sad to hear about Tip's passing.
Knowing the love your family have for each other Tip hasn't gone anywhere. He will forever be here with you all in your hearts and mind.
I know this because all the years of knowing this family all I saw manifested was the true love for each other.
Take care, Roy and Roz Williams*

“ Mr. "T" was my favorite teacher...he was down to earth and respect us as young adults, he allowed certain things to pass but when he felt the urge to pull me aside and tell me I was wrong or needed to get my self together he did and didnt hold back. There are two things I will never forget about him, the way he would say, "Babineaux" get to class, and the goofy laugh, he was a great teacher

“ Keisha, Shautet and all the Thibodeaux family my thoughts and prayers are with y'all in this trying time. Mr. T will always have a place in our hearts and memories as a great man and teacher. Over the last few days of hearing of his passing i have been reminising of times in his classes and how much fun he made learning. He was truly a man who loved his job and making sure we learned and he got joy out of seeing us learn.

“ Mr. Thibodeaux taught me several classes (history, economics, and English) when I was a student at Lawtell H.S. in the late '70's. I admired his sense of humor and dedication to his students. He was a truly decent man and a good role model. You, his family, have my sympathies and my best wishes.

“ My condolences to the Family of Mr. Ignatius Thibodeaux. Mr. Thib was a high school teacher of mine at Lawtell High School. Even back in the early 70's, he was the epitome of "cool". A great mentor, a great teacher, and a kind and humorous man. RIP Mr. Thibodeaux.
