“ Like a leaf blown away by the wind. you were taken from us. Still in shock and deeply heartbroken by your leaving, we sit and cry tears of hearts broken in so many pieces.

So much hope for what the future would hold for you and then it was all taken away. You were gone so soon that we still cannot believe it is so. I will always remember you as "my little girl who would smile every time I gave you an injection of Insulin as my Mom, Essie would hold your hand and you would say, that didn't hurt!" I pray for Shirlene, Henry, Ivory, Jason and Jonah especially. That was the beginning of your journey with Diabetes and then it took you away from us. When you entered eternal life, there were so many people waiting for you, that God saw the biggest parade He had ever witnessed.

Rest well my little Girl, as you are missed so much already. You live on in our thoughts and hearts always.

My Love,
Shirley A. Barnaba

“ I am praying that your faith will help you through this very difficult time. I pray that you will find the strength to get you through your grief and sadness.

In thinking about your loss, I would like to leave you with the quoted words of the poet Ellen Brenneman, “We can’t know why the lily has so brief a time to bloom in the warmth of sunlight’s kiss upon its face before it folds into its fragrance and bids the world good night to rest its beauty in a gentler place. But we can know that nothing that is loved is ever lost and no one who has touched a heart can really pass away because some beauty lingers on in each memory of which they’ve been a part.”

“ It's hard to know just what to say at this sad time because your loss is so great and because Jacinda will be missed in so many ways. But even though no words can truly comfort you, perhaps they can, in some small way, express the depth of care and concern that's felt for the family now. I hope it softens your sadness to know that even now Jacinda is walking in the light of God's love.

“ I'm still in disbelief and I selfishly find myself crying at the drop of a moment especially in the car. We will ALL MISS YOU TREMENDOUSLY..but being a child of God we know that this is part of our earthly journey. I'm so GRATEFUL that we shared kinship. The last time I was there..you made sure you came and gave me my MICKEY MOUSE key chain that you had been having since your Disney trip. We would always miss each other when I would visit but for some reason you came to make sure I get it. I looked at my key ring and realized it's the only souvenir on my keys. I will try my best to hang on to it for sure. Rest Easy Jacinda and tell ALL our HEAVENLY family....not too much of that zodiac up there. Heartfelt Love Cousin...Love Jeanie
