I remember as a boy when Craig would take me over to see Jackie and all the sisters, those were truly precious times in my life that I'll always cherish. My daddy always loved the times he had with her, thank you for blessing us with beautiful memories ❤️

“ I had the pleasure of taking care of Jackie while she was in our care at Opelousas General, my deepest condolences go out to the family. Jackie it was a pleasure just to give you a soothing, relaxing bath at night so that you could get some relief. Go on and take your rest my sister, you fight is over, we'll meet again in the sweet bye & bye
