“ Heyy Auntie....I haven't seen you in over 6 years since I moved to Houston! I remember when you would always tell me to go outside and play! You know that I wasn't an outside person! Lol...So somehow she managed to grab her stick/ switch and would run me out of the house and lock the door! Lol.. You were very outspoken and straight forward! You would always say, "You ain't too pretty to get a spanking" lol....Just wished that I could've seen you or heard your voice before God called you home! So here it is....March 2 which is my birthday, I'm laying my auntie to rest! I know that you're smiling down on me and I just want to say that I love you and may your beautiful soul rest in peace! Your great niece, Brittiney!:(
