“ Mrs. Janice Williams became a second mother to me as I first entered into the Town of Melville back in 2017. It was an instant connection out the gate, as she began to connect me to the different family members.

We stayed connected over the years as we exchanged prayers and encouragement to each other. Her daughter Khadie’Jah and I grew this instant sibling connection that loved to hate each other. My overwhelming prayer and love goes out to her and the family.

Mrs. Janice was pure and kind hearted and never meet a stranger, loved people naturally and would do anything for them. The world today desperately needs more like her. Lord you have a wonderful angel with you and please ensure she is embraced the same way she have embraced others🕊️💙
