“ *Caprica, I met your mother many years ago, when I was pulled up to 6 floor. We stopped to talk and 30 minutes later we were still talking. I felt like I had know her my whole life.. That was Jeanette, she never met a stranger. She picked the right field to work in, because she was such a compassionate person. I can't count how many times she came, with that stretcher, to bring me to surgery. I will never forget that warm smile and her holding my hand, because she knew I was scared. I know that nothing can replace what you have loss, but I hope you can take a some comfort in knowing that we care. Your friend, always
