“ We were on the Coral Sea together, he even came to my house and met my family. He had a good heart and really was a great Navy friend. I looked for him for awhile, now I found you bro. RIP

“ Our sincere condolences go out to Wanda, Trevor and Jerome's Family and In-laws. May God bless you all with the peace that surpasses all understanding. Jerome was a wonderful husband and father. He was always cheerful and making jokes. He was a pleasure to be around and was a great addition to our family. Romey (as we fondly called him) will be greatly missed. Rest in peace Jerome. Love: The Thomas Girls (The Baton Rouge Sisters) and Uncle Junius.

“ BIG PERSONALITY. BIG HEART. SUPER-DUDE!!! GREAT Family-Man! Jerome would take care of me each time I left Grambling to come down there for Greek Show Weekend. The weekend would always turn into (at least) a 4-5 day weekend. The kicker of all this was I would always go broke after the 2nd day & never knew I was broke because Jerome & Big V would take care of me with no questions asked... True Brotherhood!!! R.I.P. Brother...
