“ Each day after hearing this news as been one of the hardest thing to have to endure. We did not born from the same family but when you grow up as neighbor in a family net community you tie yourself in like family. Learning how to communicate to and with him was a great joy for us, that it allowed us to be able to know what he was thinking when he was not able to express it verbally. Even though everyone in the family moved from the neighborhood standing from my mom's house and just looking across the street just brought back all the joys and good times we shared all over again. My heart is in deep SORROW right now. All the more reason that we can not a chance to say our last farewell to his body, but I hold close to know that he will always hold a corner of my HEART. Be Easy Jerome your worries are over. We LOVE YOU BROTHER 🙏🙏🙏
