“ I am very sorry for your loss. In time may wonderful memories ease your sorrow. "And I have hope toward God, which hope these men also look forward to, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." (Acts 24:15) May this hope also help to comfort you.

“Condolences, with deepest sympathy, to the family of Mr. John Martin Arceneaux. I didn't personally know Mr. Arceneaux, but I do know the pain of losing a loved one in death. I also know that the creator of life, Jehovah God, never purposed for humans to die. In fact, his purpose was for humans to live forever in a paradise earth (Genesis 2:15-17). His purpose has not changed. God hates death and calls it an enemy (1 Corinthians 15:26). He has promised a time when there will be no more mourning and no more death (Revelation 21:4). He has also made provisions for us to see our dead loved ones again through the resurrection hope - for he promises "there is going to be a resurrection" (Acts 24:15). Since he is a God who "cannot lie" (Titus 1:2), we can be assured of his promises. Find the answers to questions such as "why do we die?" "where are the dead?" "will suffering ever end?" etc., at www.jw.org. May the God of comfort provide your family a measure of comfort during this time of your loss (2 Corinthians 1:3,4)
