“ He always had a sense of humour on his Facebook page but also was very aware of what was going on with our Country and was kind of critical of the policies of President #45. I know that he was very much loved and is missed by many people especially his family. Rest in Peace Sir.

“ Ill never forget hiw Mr DuRousseau welcome me in to the family. Allowed me i to his home as a family member. I came back with my daughter Jamaya at 2 years old to meet Him and Frances awww man the welcome. The comfort he made you feel been around him and Frances home breakfast was killer home made sausage, grits, sramble eggs and coffee. It left the impression that i was always welcome.
