“ Daddy, there are so many fond memories I could share, but loving you and receiving that love in return far out weighs anything I could ever remember. Anyone can be a father, but it takes someone special to be a Dad, that you was and I will forever love you. Love Always and unconditionally, your daughter, Jo Ann

“ Mrs. LouBertha, Jackie, Carolyn, Pat, Lisa and family, I send my deepest condolences to you all during this sad and grievance time in the loss of a husband, daddy, grandfather, uncle, family member and friend. I pray the Peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, would comfort you all during this most difficult time.

I can go on and on, about this man.He made me who I am today.That us one thing he instilled in me.Daddy you were the best.Wr never suffered for nothing.you made sure we had.I remember when I graduated from high school,I told you I did not want a class ring.your exact words,you are the first of my kids to graduate,and I had one of the best classring there were.Pictures and all,,40 years after being graduated,I still have my ring.Daddy get your rest.Your work had been done.

Love you always
Jacqueline Hall-Sonnier
