“ We knew Neil as G-Dog, those of us who had the pleasure of working with him. I dare say that not a one of us does not have a humorous story to tell relating those days. One of my fondest is the time he told a fellow employee that he should not ask for time off but be a Viking like he was and stick it out. Neil was a great guy, he will be missed. He was loved by us all.

“ Neil, you are gone but you will live in our hearts forever. Your work on Earth is done, so our Heavenly Father called you home. We will miss your beautiful smile and joyful laugh that filled a room with excitement. May you rest in peace. Your memory is a lasting treasure that I will hold dear always. Our family is now blessed with another Guardian Angel in heaven. I love you!!!!!!
