“ I may have only worked with John for three short years, but I can honestly say that it only took me one encounter to realize that he was a genuine gentle soul. There was never a time that a smile to John was not returned. He may have been quiet and soft spoken, but kindheartedness doesn't always require words. I will remember a hard working welder who could usually be found singing quietly to himself as he worked. I didn't know John outside of work, but I can only hope that some of that sweetness that he exuded was given back to him in one form or another. I would like to extend my greatest sympathies to his family and those close to him. He will be missed. Sarah Skowron

“ So sad to learn of John's passing. He worked with us for about the last 10 years. He was a great welder and even better person. John always carried himself with a calm and friendly demeanor that was contagious to everyone around him. It is a special quality that is not possessed by everyone. He will be greatly missed by all of us. Rest In Peace.

“ I have so many wonderful memories of this man. He was my hearth, and the love of my life. We always remained friends,we talked about everything;we shared stories with each other that others will never understand. What a blessing to have you in my life for over 40 years. Even through the dark times we were there for each other. Even when you moved away you would always find me; that was true love. I will always cherish our memories we had with each other. We were closer than most and we kept that alive something I will never forget. May your soul forever rest in peace. To the family, I have and will always have a special place in my heart for all of you. Family does not always have to be blood related, they can be like we are and will always be. I will continue to pray that you find peace and comfort knowing that our loved one is in the presence and arms of God and that he is watching over all of us. With all our love.
