

Mr. John Fitzgerald Thierry

September 4, 1971 - November 24, 2017

OPELOUSAS-Memorial Services will be held at a later date for John F. Thierry, 46, who entered eternal life on Friday, November 24, 2017 in Opelousas General Health System.

John Thierry, affectionately known as Snoopy, JT, was born on September 4, 1971 in Houston Texas. He was the only son of Mary Louise Duckless and Joseph Clarence Thierry. John graduated from Plaisance High School in Plaisance Louisiana. John obtained a bachelors degree in pre-med biology from Alcorn State University in Lorman Mississippi.

John played the first five years of his nine-year career with the Bears after being drafted in the first round 11th overall pick in the 1994 NFL draft. He had his best season with the Cleveland Browns in 1999, when he had seven sacks and 33 tackles as a defensive end and linebacker. He also played for the Atlanta Falcons and Green Bay Packers before retiring after the 2002 season.

In 2000, John married Elin Womack. In 2001 they welcomed Jordan into the world followed by Taylor and Haley 2003. John was a dedicated husband and father and always put family first. He was involved in every aspect of his daughters lives. He supported all of their interests in and out school. This involved traveling to countless basketball games and tournaments, golf tournaments, tennis tournaments, guitar lessons, piano lessons, school plays and talent shows. His family was his whole life. He would always say “seeing you happy makes me happy” when speaking with the girls and his wife. They have instilled in their daughters love, respect, honesty, and compassion for others. Even though their family did not celebrate worldly holidays because of his wife being a Jehovah’s Witness, and the girls being raised this way, they never wanted for anything. John was always providing gifts, surprises and trips for the girls and his wife on a regular basis. John was always talking with the girls and doing his best to explain the meaning of life. He was always instilling the value of respect for others as well as self respect and to be trustworthy and honest. John had a very high respect of the Bible and a Christian upbringing and wanted to instill those values in his daughters. He was always talking about giving to others and providing for those less fortunate. The best way he taught this to the girls was by his own example.

John was preceded in death by his brother Emile Fontenot Jr. and his father Joseph Clarence Thierry. He leaves to cherish his memory his wife Elin, his daughters, Jordan, Taylor, Haley, his mother Mary Louise, his sisters Allison, Tammy (Ken), Jerrie (Ronald), Krystal, Dorian, Falon and a host of nieces and nephews and friends.

The family request visiting hours be observed on Wednesday, November 29, 2017 from 10:00 A.M. to 9:00 P.M. at Williams Funeral Home Chapel.

“ I had the good fortune of playing a round of golf with John when I worked at the Trophy Club in Dacula, Ga. He made me feel like one of the guys, and I really admired his gentle giant presence. He walked the walk, and he's surely on the streets of gold in a mansion right now. He was fearfully and wonderfully made.

“ Wow. This was a blow. I hadn't seen John since our college days at Alcorn State. I had the opportunity to meet and befriend John and he was at that time and remained a genuine individual. I made mention of him to many I met who were NFL players, many of whom are my relatives, and they each had the same account as I had of John. I graduated a year or so ahead of him, but read of his great accomplishments on the grid iron. I wish the best for his family and love ones. The Almighty is always near.

“ After reading about your recent loss, I would like to send my condolences to the Thierry family. It brings me great joy to know that John had the resurrection hope of living again right here upon the earth. Reading John Chapter 5:28-29 in the Bible is such a wonderful hope that Jesus promised.

“ So sorry for you loss. The Thibodeaux's: Joyce & Larry

Joyce & Larry Thibodeaux - November 29, 2017 at 10:06 PM

“Snoopy” came to visit me in the ICU when I was 9 years old after suffering a brain aneurysm. He and his family lived directly across the street from us in Evangeline subdivision. He brought me a signed NFL football and a snoopy bear. He really did lift my spirits up that day. He reminded me that I would be back to playing basketball again once I was out of the hospital. After my release from the hospital, he did come and play basketball with me and the rest of the neighborhood kids. He even broke our window while playing. I think my family actually took great pride in letting people know that John Thierry broke our window on our house playing basketball. I couldn’t play for some weeks after my release from the hospital. But Snoopy kept reminding me “you’ll be back out there playing.” He was right, as I went on to play basketball all through high school. I share this memory of him to his family as proof of what a beautiful soul he possessed. I will carry his caring spirit with me for the rest of my life.

“ On Friday, I lost my best friend John Thierry. Over the years, we made trips to Hawaii and attended many Browns games and other events together. John was always positive and upbeat. John always made our time together fun. John was a very caring person I will surely miss him, he was the best friend a guy could have. He would often call just to see how me and my family were doing. Me and my family's thoughts and prayers are with John's family.

“ I remember John Thierry when he was a student at Alcorn State University. He often visited my office in the General College for Excellence (GCE). He would share with me how much he loved his mother and his sisters. John was a very respectful young man. He was an outstanding student athlete and scholar. The staff in GCE would often tell John as much as he visited our offices, we were going to employ him as one of our work study students. He would smile and say, "That's fine. What would you like for me to do?"

John Thierry, will forever be remembered. May you find peace in knowing that he was loved and admired by many.
