“ Heartfelt condolences and deepest sympathy to the family and friends. I'm so sorry I won't be in attendance but our family suffered a loss also and the services are also on Saturday. Not only did Kye and I grow up together we were also coworkers. I worked with him on several dredges and we always had fun. You will be missed Kye. Get your rest. No more pain. Fly high

“ Mr. Hayes loved his grand girls, Khloe and Zoie and they loved him. He cooked for them and taught them very early how to handle a fork and spoon. Mr. Hayes could make some delicious gumbo and it seemed to bring him joy that others enjoyed it. His rice and bean, seasoned with neck bones was filled many stomachs and warmed many hearts. Rest in perfect peace Mr. Hayes. Peace to the family . Grandi Perry/Khloe and Zoie's paternal grandmother, Asheboro NC
