“ It was a pleasure to have met you and to work with you on your tours to California. I appreciate the exposure you gave my son Andre Thierry at your club and also the guidance you may have given him. I believe I can say Thank you and May you find peace in a heavenly place with al the great Zydeco Players. As my mom says now you have a permanent place with a Heavenly Zydeco Band.

“ I remembered back in Atlanta, Ga. in summer 1989 I was walking down Auburn ave. going to visit the Martin L. King center and as I was walking I could hear the zideco music just booming and I know it had to be someone from back home, so when I finally got there, "low and behold" it was Roy Carrier. Boy, was I happy to see someone from back home. I will never forget that moment of Mr. Roy Carrier. God be with the Carrier family.
