“ Dear Heavenly Father

Father God, we come today to honor our loved one. We your children have gathered here today not only to grieve the loss of Joseph Davis but to also give thanks to you for his life among us.

We are gathered today not only to mourn over how different our lives will be without him but to give thanks to you for how full life was when he was with us.

We have gathered here today not only to consider the shortness and uncertainty of life on earth but to give thanks to you for the gift of life and the gift of family and the gift of friendships.

Father God, we ask that you would comfort the Davis family this day as we come together to share love and sweet memories with one another.

In Jesus Mighty Name we Pray.
