*Marie and Family,
I learned just today of your loss of our beloved 'Rip,' my fraternity brother whom I made at Grambling 54 years ago. I have good memories of him from then and later. My wife and I pray that God will keep all of you in the palm of His BIG hands at this time of loss.

“ To the family of Mr. Joseph Cleveland Eaglin, I send to you my heartfelt condolences and prayers. Mr. Eaglin was special to me as a young man for he taught me some of life's greatest lessons while at OJHS, how to be a leader and how to earn respect through the fair treatment of others.

He always found time to listen and made you feel like what you were talking about was all that mattered at that time. I have not had such an influential or inspiring teacher cross my path since him.

Thank you Eaglin family for sharing such a great man with a much needed world!!
