“ R.I.P Uncle T-Sue. I will never forget the good times that we shared when you would come over to my grandparents house (Aunt A-Mae or Nan-Nan) as he would call her. His laugh was always cheerful.

“ You were so full of life, Always smiling and carefree, Life loved you being a part of it, And I loved you being a part of me. You could make anyone laugh, If they were having a bad day, No matter how sad I was, You could take the hurt away. Nothing could every stop you, Or even make you fall, You were ready to take on the world, Ready to do it all. But God decided he needed you, So from this world you left, But you took a piece of all of us, Our hearts are what you kept. Your seat is now empty, And it's hard not to see your face, But please always know this, No one will ever take your place. Nothing will ever be the same, The halls are empty without your laughter, But I know you're in Heaven, Watching over us and looking after. And I know everyday for the rest of my life, I'll be missing you.

“ Don't think of him as gone away-
his journey's just begun, life holds so many facets-this earth is only one. . .
Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.
Think how he must be wishing that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.
And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched. . .
for nothing loved is ever lost-
and he was loved so much.

In Loving Memory Alex & Brenda Pickens Broussard You will be truly missed Uncle. I will miss our little moments at the nursing home.
