“ Our deepest loving condolences to Brenda, Ann, Angel & Jeremy and the entire Robert Family!

Grateful to have met, but largely come to know Mr. Joseph through Brenda, my dearest girlfriend of 35 years. "By their fruits you shall know [him] them" (Matt 7:20; emphasis added) lingers on my heart and mind as I reflect upon her many shared stories of family get-togethers, births, marriages, celebrations in the midst of some challenges. Mr. Joseph's, devotion to God and Christlike fruits, including a close loving family and large progeny is eternal, as is his soul. Although it is with a heavy heart I share in the sorrow of his passing, equally with joy in my being, I share in celebrating Mr. Joseph's well lived long... loving, kind, humorous, generous, compassionate, and faithful life!

"Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times in every way" (2 Thessalonians 3:16).

“ Uncle Joseph you were the last of my uncles on my mom side of the family. My heart is saddened but I know where you are. When my mother visited you last month she told me that you were asking for your twin brother. I knew in my heart that it wouldn't be long before you transition.

Whenever we came to visit and you would be sitting outside with you dog I couldn't wait to just sit and listen to you tell stories. I am going to miss that!! Take your rest now Uncle because now you are with your brothers. All I can say it "Well done my good and faithful servant".

“ I have so many stories about Cousin Joe but my fondest memory was when I was visiting them(he & Cousin Chippy) and he told me of his special fig tree. He was proud of that tree and told me that he didn't let just anybody eat from the tree, but since I was a special cousin he gave me a fig from that favorite special tree. Even if he was joking, as he often did, I felt like a special cousin. RIP Cousin Joe

“ When I was a little girl, I couldn't tell the difference between Uncle Joseph and Uncle John. I would always get them mix-up. One day it finally clicked. Uncle Joseph was the funny one and Uncle John was the quiet one. I never made that mistake again. Near the end, my Uncle started asking for his twin brother. Although I am saddened by the loss of my dear Uncle, I know God sent Uncle John to greet him at the gates of heaven. Rest In Peace Uncle Joseph.

“ I used to see Mr. Robert at the doctor 's office accompanied by one of his son's who was so proud of his parents as he would always ask his dad how he was married and Mr. Robert would say " I don't know but it's been a long time" and we would all laugh ! Sorry to hear of his demise .
