“ Aunt Geraldine, Paulette, Gerard, Jeremy, and Justin you all have my deepest sympathy. Uncle Henry was like a father to me also. He will be truly missed, but always remembered for his large heart that he shared his joy with everyone he came in contact with. I want you all to know that I will always be there for you all, because that is what family is all about. I love all of you.

“ I was so very saddened to hear about Mr. Henry's passing. My heart is so heavy today. I haven't seen Mr. Henry in over 10 years, but he and his family have always held a special place in my heart. He is in a very special place now and he will be watching his beautiful family. My prayers are with all of you at this great time of sadness.
