“ Cousin Josephine was a very dignified and beautiful woman. She was very compassionate and had a very humble spirit. She was a hard worker and very ambitious woman. One of my fondest memories we shared was Cousin Josephine served as one of my first bridesmaids for my wedding which was 70 years ago on the front porch of my family home in Opelousas, La. Throughout the years we stayed in touch even after she moved to Houston, Tx. When we decided to renew our wedding ceremony celebrating 50 years Cousin Josephine was more than honor to serve again as she did years ago. Then for our 60 years anniversary she was in attendance for that special occasion.

RIP Cousin Josephine.
