“ Joshua was a really good man who loved his family and friends. He gave sholarships to children who could not pay there way to college, gave ice cream to children so they would have something cold on the hot summer days. He was a good care taker, he took men and women where they needed to go, and he loved unconditionally. I love him and he will be missed, and he was a best friend anyone could have, R.I.P. Joshua Levier. And he knew his Bible. He was known for his good cooking. Miss but not forgotten.
