“ To Paula and Audrina along with all Mrs. Joyce' family, relatives and friends, I extend my deepest sympathy and sincerest condolences. I remember as a young girl Ms. Joyce coming to Batiste Cafe to pick up fried chicken dinners. Always a soft spoken lady. Take all the life lessons that she taught you all and cherish every memory and remember you now have another angel in Heaven, appointed by God, to watch over you all. When the hard days ahead that will come and you're missing her so bad, seek God's strength and guidance and listen for her voice to tell you she's alright and watching over you
