“ He was a very kind brother-in-law and a devoted husband and father, affectionately referred to as “Puncho”. I admired him and he will certainly be missed. Puncho fought a good fight...grant him eternal rest, dear Lord.

“ My dear friends Patricia and Miranda and to entire Gauthier family, I am so sorry for your loss. I will always remember Puncho, with all the laughter we all shared on a New Years Eve night. It was hilarious and one of my best New Year's Eve gatherings. My heart goes out to you my dear friend, Patricia, and pray that the Lord continue to give you and your family strength to get through these hard times without your dearest love and best friend.

“ When I visited Opelousas for the first time around 1968 to meet all My Cousins , Laura Lee and My Mother Albertha Mason Lastie looked so much alike at that time that they played a trick on Puncho. My Mother called him into a room. He asked “ You called me what You want ? “ !! Not knowing it was My Mother and not His !! 😂
Didn't get to spend a lot of time with You but You were always and Forever will be Loved. 🙏
