“ To Katie's children, siblings, and entire family. We do not grieve like those that have no hope. For we believe that Jesus died and rose again, and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in him. Katie Mae ("Cuz") lived for Christ and shared her gift of teaching with the world. She will be missed, but her legacy will live on in our hearts. With love and deepest sympathy. “ To the family of Mrs Katie Stagg, I am so sorry for your loss. I remember riding the commuting bus to Southern University with Mrs Stag back in the middle 70's. I loved her warm smile that could light up a room but don't get it twisted. She was sweet but don't cross her because she would let you know which end is up. I know your heart is breaking but just remember the Scriptures can help you deal with your grief. ( Isaiah 25:18)

“ I send to the family my comforting prayers. I will always keep Ms. Stagg as one of my favorite teacher. I love how she just had the class laughing all the time. This same technique is used by me this very day. They just don't make them the same. Rest easy Ms. Stagg!
