“ Met Kenny in junior high school (Opelousas Jr High) on up through high school who was a grade ahead of me. And although we did not travel in the same circles, we knew each other through association of classmates and schoolmate acquaintances. Always a cool guy . . . you will be missed. My condolences, sympathy and prayers to your family. I thank God for your presence in being acquainted with you . . . homeboy, schoolmate, and friend. RIP
