“ Sir Lancelot, I always felt like an Aunt to you because I always regarded your dad as a brother. Most people don't know that I always called you Sir Lancelot whenever I saw you and you would smile and blush a bit. History has it that Sir Lancelot was the son of a King and a Knight of the Round Table who never failed in gentleness, courtesy and courage. He was well known for being kind and serving others. Its the perfect title for YOU! Rest well royal knight, your big presence and light on this earth will be sorely missed!!

“ Lance, you gave me two beautiful granddaughters. I think one has your personality and the other has your build. I think one inherited your love of cooking for she loves the cooking station and to smell the pot. They both can charm people with their smiles and friendly natures and they love having friends and dancing, just like you. My family loved you the moment they met you for you made every person feel worthy of at least a smile. May you dance in the sky. The peace of Christ is with you.
