“ To the entire Fields family, you have my deepest sympathy during this very difficult time. God knows our pain when we lose someone, and he is always with us to comfort us. He speaks to us through his word, pointing us to Scripture that comforts our soul. Matthew 5:4, God blesses those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

“ I am going to miss my brother n law.
I am going to miss his smile
I am going to miss his kindness
I am going to miss his love for family
But most of all, I will miss Ray's beautiful tenure voice as he leads the Johnson family choir through their annual rendition of 'the Temptation's Silent Night' on Christmas Day.

To my nieces "Felicia and Leslie"
God will link the broken chain
As one by one we'll all meet again
In your hearts he will always stay
Loved and remembered in every way.

With Deepest Sympathy,

Iona Lee Johnson-Morrison

“ I always understood that death is an inevitable part of life. At some point we all die. A week ago I received a phone call that would forever change my family, even more because of the recent loss of my brother and sister. We had no time to grieve at all. So many thoughts went through my head. Ray was a great big brother to all his siblings with big plans to go back and work overseas in the spring. He loved his job at Halliburton and also as a business owner as Fields Remodeling. He was known as sn artist in his field of work. He loved shopping in Turkey for odd items for family and friends. I was so proud of him for letting the lord use him in his music ministry when he got the opportunity oh what a great soloist. He loved his church family at northwest community B.C under the leadership of Rev. James Dixon in Houston Texas. Oh how he loved his kids and family. He was our back bone our rock at all family gatherings. As we lay our yellow rose to rest, he left a legacy for his siblings and kids. Rest on brother we shall met again. Amen...

*Prayers for the family. Ray and I reconnected after 50 years following a Waxia Reunion. We had many laughs in the last year remembering the old days and the people we grew up with. I heard all about the family and his love for everyone. I was looking forward to tasting the sweet potato pie that he said was better than his Aunt JoElla. He shared with me his plans to travel and return overseas. I am saddened by his early call home but my faith reminds me that God does not make a mistake. May the memories of Ray help heal the pain and give you comfort.
