“ So often we find ourselves not wanting to let go. We are never quite ready to say good bye to our love ones. Even when Abraham in the Old Testament, passed away, the people of Israel mourned his passing for a week. They did not want to let go either. But God has other plans for all of us. We are so thankful for the times that God has allowed us to be with our love ones. We were so blessed to have had Cousin Lawrence for 86 years. Be blessed..
