“ No greater friend than Drew. When i was down and out and moved back to Des Moines, he was my first friendly encounter down at Civic Center Courts apartments. from then on, we had great laughs together, barbecue food, Saints games on TV and other extracurricular activities... I then met Courtney, Lorenzo, and Lance over time. Great, beautiful kids who respected and honored him well. No one be able to Drew's place in my life, i am terribly hurt inside, i had since moved from Des Moines about 20 years ago and was able to see him when i came back to visit. I am very saddened that we missed each other last year about this time when i came to D.M. I love you Drew and he knew it, i am thankful that we were able to hug, laugh, and tell each other the love and respect we had for each other last time i saw him.

To his kids, I love you too, you will always be special to me, please keep in touch. I know Caroline and he were no longer together, but she was there when i was there, so i want her to know my love for her and deepest sympathy to her and Drew's children he had with her.

I can't believe my brother from another mother is gone... but i believe we will meet again in heaven, and this time our fellowship, fun, and laughter will not be interrupted by death and distance.

“Mrs. Gordon," Gabby, Tony, Friends and Family...
I am deeply saddened that our dear friend and "Brother" has gone to his final resting place. Although we will miss "Drew" and his one-and-only sense of humor, we will forever hold dear his loving spirit and the laughs we shared. He was always cajun-seasoned with those spicy jokes! May God's peace surround his family with love and comfort...

“ My thoughts and prayers are with his wife Cindy and his family, friends and his dog Ziggy. Drew loved that dog. I enjoyed so many trips with Cindy and Drew to LA, K.C. Mo., Ozarks and Cedar Rapids as well as almost nightly get together for lots of laughs.

Dear Father, You hold time within your hands, and see it all, from beginning to end. Please keep and carry these precious people in their sadness and loss. Cover them with your great wings of love, give their weary hearts rest and their minds sound sleep. Lord, lift their eyes so that they may catch a glimpse of eternity, and be comforted by the promise of heaven.

*We ask all this in the precious name of Jesus.
Amen.*

*Love you all,
Vicki A/K/A Drew and Cindy's third wheel.*
