“ To the Auzenne family please accept my condolences. To lose someone special and dear to us can leave us so pained. It's clear Mr Auzenne will be missed dearly. My heart really goes out to you. I understand losing a family member to cancer but God's word the Bible has helped me and its my hope it can help you as well. God sees what you are going through and he cares for you (Ps 34:18) His word the Bible shows us his promise to rid death forever (Rev 21:4). May scriptures such as these soothe and comfort your hearts during this time.

“ Aunt Glo and Anthony, I am so sorry to hear about the lost of Uncle Paul. I will always remember him for his wonderful personality and sense of style. He was always smiling and laughing, I can not remeber a time when he was not ever smiling that wonderful smile of his. He always made sure to tell everyone hi and shake your hand; if he did not know you he made darn sure you knew him because he would ask who is that and go right up and introduce himself. His sense of style was bar none... no one could touch him. Looking back as child, I remember he would always dress in a suit, cowboy boots or shoes, and a hat to match. He even made a plain t shirt and jeans look stylist. Yes, that was my Uncle Paul... bigger than life, but down to earth shining brighter than all those diamonds he wore. I felt honored to grow up around great men like him. He will truly be missed but his memory will live on forever. Sending hugs and lots of love to the both of you during this difficult time. ❤️

“ I have so many memories of Uncle Paul he was let a father to me,my father Peter Auzenne pass when I was 3yrs old, so I would go to the country ever summer to my grandmother house, Uncle Paul would have to pick me up to drop me there. I would also spend time at his house where Anothy was my partner in crime, never a dull moment with Uncle Paul. I was at one of the family reunion, everyone knows Uncle Paul always had on his jewelry, so my daughter was young at the time ,she said Uncle Paul why you have on all those diamond rings and that watch don't match, he came to me and said your lil girl made me shame,next time he had all rings and gold watch, that was so funny, so she said Uncle Paul next time I see you I want a diamond ring two years ago he gave her a ring. I'm going to miss him dearly. Love MELDA Auzenne Foster💜🥺
