“ It's so hard to say goodbye to someone who was not just a cousin but more like a big brother. With the passing of my father at such a young age, Leonard was affluential in ensuring I came to know my family. For that, I am eternally grateful. I will miss all of our phone conversations and the abrupt way he would end the call. Now, I can laugh and cherish all of the memories. I will miss him so much, but I know he's in a better place and no longer suffering. My heart and prayers to Florence, My Baby Bobby, and all of the family. Although I can not be there physically, my spirit is there with all of you, and most of all, I am praying. We are family, and I love all of you. So long, my Big Brother, until we meet again.
