“ *Dear Mr. Clay, Yvette and Pat,
You have my deepest sympathy. I remember when you all became our neighbors. Mrs. Clay would invite me over for coffee. I felt so special.... honored that she wanted to spend that time with me! She was a trooper. Following her stroke which left her incapacitated she pressed on. Her strength and resilience was quite evident over the extended period of her illness. May she rest peacefully in the presence of God. Colette*

“ When I was little I used to go to Auntie house a lot. I loved it. Cousin Yvette had an extensive Barbie collection with houses, cars, etc. Over cornflakes in the mornings Auntie would tell me about how I needed an education to be successful in life. And how I had to do better than my best She would say you’re smart but you don’t know nothing yet. I really appreciated her candor... kept me humble and kept me working hard. My condolences to Uncle Clay, Yvette, Pat and all their extended family. Love you all and rest assured she’s at peace.
