“ Dear Mama: it's been two years (going on three in 2022), and my heart is in so much pain...I wish you could see your 4th Grandchild..my daughter... she's beautiful...I wish you were still with us, but I know you had to answer the Lord's Call to go home...life isn't the same without you...I feel so alone, even though the "family" is mere minutes away from where I live...yet I feel alone...with a huge hole in my heart...my life shattered into a million pieces that no one can ever put back together again... You were so much more than a mother to me...you were my best friend... I love you with all my heart and soul...I miss you terribly...🥹💔

“ Happy Heavenly Birthday, Mama....there are absolutely no words to express how I feel...the first year without you... not able to see or play with your final granddaughter...I love and miss you so much...I've been dealing with your loss on my own and it's been tough...I think about you all the time and I try to do the things that would make you smile, like cooking your favorite foods and working hard for my daughter...I don't celebrate the holidays anymore because they are not the same without you...I just try to live day by day, even on the very days I don't feel like getting out of bed... but I do it for you... because I know you would want me to be happy and carry on... Happy Heavenly Birthday Dear Mama...I love you always and forever My Angel...🙏💔

*"Endless Love"
In Loving Memory of My Mom*

I looked outside, and saw the rain, gently caressing my window pane...

I saw my mother, and I begged her to stay, but she told me that God needed her, so she had to go away...

She said the road will be hard, but encouraged me to be strong, so I'll do what I can to carry on..

As my tears flowed like the pouring rain, will there ever be comfort from this endless pain..

When I'm alone, I think of you, thinking about all of the wonderful things we used to do..

Even though you're gone, one day I'll see your face, because your Endless Love can never be replaced..

Dear Mama: I can't believe it's nearly a year since you've been gone..the pain I feel there are no words to describe...what breaks my heart more than the fact that you're gone it's the fact that you never had a chance see my beautiful daughter your fourth and final grandchild 4 second granddaughter.. what I wouldn't give have another talk with you because this last year it's been so difficult and I feel so all alone.. there is a big hole in my heart where you used to be and I don't think anything will ever fill the void in my heart... I don't really celebrate holidays anymore because they don't feel the same without you.. I just wanted to take this time tell you that I love you and that I will miss you...and I will cherish your memory forever.. you are so much more than my mother, you're my very best friend too.. rest well, my angel...

Mama: it's nearly been a year since you were called home...I miss you so much...my life has not been the same without you...I don't even celebrate holidays anymore because it's just not the same without you...I've cried so much during this month and I miss you each and every day of my life...my heart is broken in a million pieces and there's a big hole in my heart that can never be filled...I know God said He would not put more than we can bear, but this Cross I carry gets heavier and heavier each day of my life....🥺💔
