“ Gerald and family: My heart aches at the passing if our sweet Lisa. She was a genuinely kind, compassionate and friendly person. Her beautiful smile, contagious laughter and positive disposition could light up a room! It was an honor to know her and call her friend. Aside from her strong faith in our Almighty God, the thing she talked about most was her love for each of you. I will keep you all in my thoughts and prayers. I hope that you will find peace and comfort in our loving Lord's promise that you shall be together again. With deepest sympathy and heartfelt condolences ...

“ A Word of Sympathy Tears of grief can blind us So that a bend in the road. Like a loved one's departure, Seems like the end of the road.
But tears. like telescopes, Let us behold God's Son Welcoming to HEAVEN Our dear departed ones.
That's how we're comforted- With Him they're not alone. Death's just a bend in the road That leads God's children home.
I know that you are hurting, believe me I know. But, what I also know is that with time it will get better. If you focus on all the good times you had(and there were many) this alone will comfort you. Know that we LOVE YOU and that if there is ever anything you need all you have to do is call.
