“ It's so much to say because just the other day I saw you. I just want you to know mom that I love you and always will as your soul rests in heaven. I remember the good time we use to have. I was three years old when you took me in and now im 15. I really appreciate what all you have done. The reason why I call you mom is because you were always there. There's no reason for me to be sad because your not struggling any more. Well I am going to let you rest in peace my love. I Love You Mom~

“ My sympathies are with the family of Lorena. I am sorry for the loss of your loved one. It seems that death is a hard thing to bear. The only comfort we have at this time comes from the bible. In John 5:28 Jesus said "the hour is coming in which all those in the graves will hear my voice and come out." Also in Revelation 21:1-5 God says he will make this earth like new and there will be no more sickness pain sorrow and death. What more can we ask for then to live forever in happiness on a paradise earth.
