“ To: The Fontenot's
Please accept my most sincere sympathy in the recent bereavement that you have suffered. Your wife, mother, and grandmother will be long remembered by many. She had a rare warmth personality and beauty of character that left a lasting impression upon all who knew and met her. As her Godchild, I personally shall always feel that way. She meant a lot to me. I looked on her as a second mother, and I think I never knew a kinder, more considerate person. I shall call on you all personally a little later. In the meantime, I am praying for the family. May you be given strength to bear this heavy burden. In Jesus' Name.
Affectionately, Tonya
