“ My deepest condolences to you Liler and the rest of your family. Lucius was a kind and “good-hearted” person and together you made a perfect pair. Your love for each other was evident and you shared it others. You took on the role of guardians/parents to some of your nieces and nephews. What an example of unselfish love. Lucius has his crown now. Well done Lucius and may you now Rest in eternal peace with Jesus. Liler, I will pray for God’s healing grace for you at this difficult time.
