“ I am deeply saddened to learn of the passing of Joyce. My sympathy goes out to Warren and Joyce's entire family. I remember with joy the fun we had during the Collins family reunion several years ago in California when we took a trip down to Tiajuana, BC. My prayers for courage for all the family who have to deal with the grief of this huge loss.

“ Please accept this expression of warm sympathy regarding the death of your loved one. The Bible makes this promise: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." (rev. 21: 4,5). "May the God of all comfort" be with you, and may you find peace in the wonderful resurrection hope. (John 5:28, 29).

“ When I started work at Lawtell Elementary in 1974 as a Teacher's Aide, Mrs. Alsandor was one of the teachers that I worked with. She loved teaching and I learned a lot from her. My prayers go out to the family.

“*Dear Family and Friends,
I'm sorry for your loss. I just wanted to leave you with an encouraging scripture that has helped me deal with the loss of a loved one. It is found in the Bible Book of Acts 24:15 and it reads, "And I have hope toward God, which hope these men also look forward to, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."
