Mareya Ann Henry

Our hearts are broken as we share the passing of our beloved Mareya Ann Henry, who left this world far too soon on Sunday, October 12, 2025, at the age of 18. Mareya's beautiful soul touched everyone who knew her, she was full of light, laughter, and love, and she will be deeply missed by all whose lives she brightened.

Family and friends are welcome to pay their respects between 9:00 AM to 12:30 PM Saturday, October 18, 2025, at Williams Funeral Home in Opelousas, LA, followed by a funeral service to celebrate her life at St. Leo the Great Catholic Church in Leonville, LA at 1:00 PM.

Following the Funeral Mass, Mareya will be laid to rest in the church cemetery.

Mareya is cherished and remembered by her devoted parents, Kellie Henry of Opelousas, LA, and Patrick Henry of Port Barre, LA; and by her loving siblings, Michael Zachary, Patrick Rasheed Henry, Adrian Cordell Henry, Patrick Henry II, Deantea Benjamin, and Enrique Henry. She also leaves behind her grandmother, Marjorie McFatter (John), and step-grandfather, Floyd Duplechain; a beloved nephew, Michael Zachary, Jr.; two uncles, Robert Bennett (Heather) and Micheal Crouch (Jenn); one aunt, Shirley Henry, along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and many friends who loved her dearly.

She was preceded in death by her paternal grandparents, Frank Henry and Mary Ann Milton Henry; a loving aunt who held a special place in her heart, Linda Henry, who now welcome her with open arms in heaven.

Mareya's time with us was short, but her love was boundless. She will forever be remembered for her kind heart, radiant smile, and the joy she brought into every room she entered. Though she is no longer with us in body, her spirit will live on in our hearts forever.

Messages of comfort and condolences maybe shared with the family at www.williamsfuneralhomes.net

Funeral arrangements have been entrusted to the compassionate care of Williams Funeral Home of Opelousas. For more information, please call (337) 942-2037.

“ *To Kelly and family. I did not know your daughter, but she had the same appreciation for life as you; then I know she was beautiful inside and out. I am very sorry that her life has been cut short and i just read her obituary a few minutes ago .please place your sorrows at our Lord' s feet. He is the only one you should trust. I have not seen you for years, but I Know this is devoted.
Condolences for Mareya Henry's Parents*

My heart aches for you in this time of unimaginable loss. No words can truly ease the pain of losing a precious child, but please know that you are surrounded by love, prayer, and care. Mareya's light and spirit touched many lives, and her memory will continue to shine brightly in the hearts of all who knew her.

May God's comforting presence hold you close in your sorrow and give you strength for each new day. I pray that in time, the beautiful memories you shared with Mareya will bring you peace and remind you that love never dies—it lives on forever in your hearts.

*With deepest sympathy and love,
(Jean Fontenot*

*I just had serious knee surgery so I will be unable to be there but my prayers will cover you and your family

“ Pat, I can't begin to imagine the "place" you are at in your mind, heart, and soul during this most tragic time. There's absolutely no words or action, (and I'm sure they are very genuine) at this moment that could be of ANY consolation to you, Kellie and/or the family, and my heart goes out to each one of you. Nephew, I pray The Lord's Divine Peace, Healing, Comfort, Grace, and His UNFAILING Love, rest upon your soul, and each one of you during this sudden tragedy, in the loss of ya'll baby girl, sister, niece, grandchild, friend, Mareya! May the assurance of knowing she is in Heaven, an "Angel" in The Presence of The Lord, be your "joy" in the midst of the pain, In The Mighty Name of Jesus!
Love ya'll,
Pudgy
