“ Your family is in my prayers. I know that this is a trying time for you all but I pray that God strengthens you and give you peace. I pray He comforts your soul and eases your mind. Remember that He is still in control and you can always go to Him. I never met "Nen" as Felita calls her in conversation, but I have had the pleasure of working with Felita for a few years now and I know she had to have been an amazing woman to have reared someone as amazing as Felita. So hold on to the legacy she has left and continue to please her in heaven, as she looks down , guarding each of you.
