Martin was a very good person. He was a kind hearted man. Every year when my mother was alive he would go to the Nursing home and lead everyone in prayers for the April birthday parties. He was a honest man that you could always trust. He worked hard for a living and never tried to hurt no one. I feel that I was privileged to know him and to be the Godmother of his youngest son. He had a kind loving heart. His children can say that they have a special angel in Heaven that will always be watching over them. Martin legacy will live for generations to come. To his children and sister, please remember all the happy moments and his love for horses. My prayers go out to the Family.
