“ I am so hurt you are gone, you and I had a fight to fight together.....a very hard and long one. However; through the pain and uncertainties our faith was unwavering. I looked forward to meeting up with you bc you always had something crazy to tell me, always joking around. I will cherish every single joke you ever said about me. I'm truly going to miss you , Rest In Peace and watch over me as I continue my journey for a transplant. You fought an awesome fight, now take your rest as you so richly deserve. God Bless you!! And I will continue to lift your family in prayer. 🙏🙏❤️

“ Wow hard to believe you are going, we were just talking about good times a few months ago. You recommended me for a front office position at Doctor's Hospital years ago. You were always available to help me on the weekends that I worked. You nick named me (Queen Bee). I will never forget that smile you did your job So Well. Love you and the girls. Will miss that beautiful smile. Please look down on us and pray for us. You are in the better Place.
