“ To the Kimble Family:

Words cannot express the love I have for Mrs. Kimble. She was truly a mother to many. She loved her family, but not only her family, she loved so many other kids and gave them love. I remember the times I spent the night over at her home and the many laughs we shared. I was telling my Aunt Linda that she and Mr. Kimble was father and mother to so many...they epitomized the..."It Takes A Village" to raise kids, they instilled love in everyone they met. I often spoke of how she and her husband made everyone feel welcomed in their home. My family sends their condolences.

Love Always!

The Bob, Rayme, Vernon, and Calvin Family.
